

The County Water District of Billings Heights realizes the important role that contractors and builders play in the District and invite you to review our rules and regulations for working within the District. It is important to review the standards and fees from time to time as they are subject to change to meet the needs of the District. If you have any questions that are not addressed within these links or regarding any other aspect of working within the District please feel free to call the office.

View PDF

